↑ The UK Hi-Fi Show Live 24 is set to treat visitors with an abundance of UK (and some world!) first seen/first heard exclusives, including the glorious C41 streamer/preamp from German marque, MBL. Heard with Radialstrahler speakers, the C41 will demonstrate the power of its custom digital headroom technology.

↑ Now distributed in the UK by Cadence, Rotal will be back at the UK Hi-Fi Show Live in force, featuring its high-value, high-power Michi amplifiers alongside the RAS-5000 integrated, which combines its proven Class AB analogue know-how with a versatile streaming platform.

← UK distributor Karma AV will showcase the new Ultra Evolution speaker lineup from US brand SVS, including the flagship Pinnacle [HFN Jul '24] with its time-aligned array of 25mm treble and dual-135mm mid and 200mm bass units. Pitched at £5999 this represents a lot of speaker for the money, so why not audition it on Level 4 of the Grandstand alongside the acclaimed, and considerably costlier, limited edition of Perlisten's astonishing S7t floorstander [HFN Apr '22]. Powered by the cream of Primare's electronics, these will be must-hear systems.

↑ High-end hi-fi demands the finest cabling and Furutech will be tempting you with its soon-to-be-released Project V-1 RCA & XLR interconnects. These flagship cables can be enjoyed in a fabulous system comprising a Clearaudio turntable and arm with DS Audio's new DS-E3 optical pick-up.

↓ Returning to showcase its expanded (now eight-strong) Radia series, Arcam will have its SA35 streaming amplifier on demonstration alongside the ST25 digital audio player and flagship SA45 all-in-one amp. Both amplifiers feature Arcam's 5th-gen Class G tech and new streaming platform in super-stylish cases!
